WINDES & MCCLAUGHRY PARTNER ELECTED BOARD CHAIRMAN

Effective Immediately, Jack Hinsche Becomes Chairman of the YMCA of Greater Long Beach

LONG BEACH, CA – June 7, 2010 – Windes & McClaughry Accountancy Corporation, a leading Southern California accounting and consulting firm with 84 years in business, today announced that Jack Hinsche will serve as Chairman and Chief Volunteer Officer for the YMCA of Greater Long Beach.

“Jack’s volunteer work in support of children, families and community is very admirable and we are very proud with his efforts,” says John Di Carlo, managing partner of Windes & McClaughry. “Jack’s leadership and extensive experience will serve the organization well.”

YMCA of Greater Long Beach is the area’s oldest and biggest youth- and family-serving organization. Founded in 1884, the YMCA serves over 35,000 people annually from six community branches, a 240-acre camp in Big Bear (YMCA Camp Oakes), 12 pre-schools, 30 after-school sites, a community school in downtown Long Beach, and a gymnastics club. The YMCA’s annual operating budget is $17,000,000 in 2010 and has a strong volunteer/staff partnership which delivers hundreds of programs by the 650 staff members and 750 program volunteers. Over 200 corporate and branch board members set and carry out policies, as well as determine strategic direction for the YMCA. The mission of the YMCA is “to welcome all people in a united effort to put Judeo-Christian values into practice through programs that develop healthy spirit, mind, and body.” The vision of the YMCA is that everything it does programmatically will strengthen the family and build community.

Hinsche’s primary responsibility will be to lead the 48-member Board of Directors to support the staff in the accomplishment of organizational goals, through its strategic initiatives, and desired outcomes – primarily to strengthen and support children and families. The organization’s strategic plan covering the 2010 – 2015 period will serve as the roadmap.

“I’m deeply honored to have this opportunity and excited to work with such a strong board and the outstanding management and leadership team of the YMCA,” says Hinsche. “My roots are in Long Beach and it is very satisfying to give back to the community that has been such a great part of my life.”

Hinsche has been with the firm for 39 years and is the previous managing partner (2001-2009). He has a bachelor of science in accounting from California State University, Long Beach (CSULB). Hinsche is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants (CALCPA).

In addition to YMCA of Greater Long Beach, Hinsche serves on the advisory boards for CSULB’s Board of Governors, CSULB’s Ukleja Center for Ethical Leadership, and the Upstream Academy, and is a board member for the LBCC Foundation Board of Governors and the Long Beach Ronald McDonald House Board of Trustees.
