Chase McClung, CPA, CM&AA

Partner, Audit & Assurance Services

Range of Experience

Chase joined Windes in 2010 and is a partner in the firm's Audit & Assurance Services department. Additionally, he serves as the firm's Transaction Advisory Services practice leader. Chase focuses on audit accounting services, financial statement reporting, and consulting services for privately held companies.

As the practice leader of Windes' M&A Transaction Advisory practice, Chase works closely with owners of privately held businesses in preparing them for potential mergers and acquisitions. His technical expertise in this area includes financial due diligence for both buyers and sellers, EBITDA and working capital analyses, quality-of-earnings studies, and review of transaction-related agreements.

Chase serves a wide variety of clients in the construction, oil and gas, business services, manufacturing and distribution, healthcare, and real estate sectors.
