Range of Experience

Gary Greene is a partner in the firm's Tax department and brings more than 40 years of public accounting experience to Windes. Throughout his career, Gary principally represented multi-generational family office clients, focusing exclusively on providing tax services, including strategic planning and consultation, estate and gift tax planning, and ongoing compliance support.

Gary joined Windes on July 1, 2026, through the addition of his practice with Harris, Greene LLP, an Irvine, California-based public accounting firm.

Gary has developed a tax practice with extensive experience in the real estate, hospitality, venture and growth equity, and life sciences sectors.

Gary has been privileged to develop lasting relationships with his clients. Together with Windes, Gary will continue his highly personalized approach to tax planning and advisory services.
