Range of Experience

Kerry Lim is a partner in the firm's Tax department, bringing more than 35 years of public accounting experience to Windes. Kerry joined the firm in 2026 through the addition of Gary Greene's practice with Harris, Greene LLP, an Irvine, California-based public accounting firm.

Throughout her career, Kerry has worked closely with business owners, high-net-worth individuals, and closely held companies, providing practical guidance tailored to each client's needs.

Kerry has developed an expertise in partnership taxation and has significant experience in the real estate and hospitality sectors, serving clients that own, manage, and construct hotel properties.

With her depth of experience and long-standing relationships in representing family office clients, Kerry delivers responsive service and insight involving income tax and estate planning, tax compliance, and other tax matters.
